

The National Junior Honor Society is an organization that recognizes and encourages academic achievement while developing other characteristics essential to democracy.

Members are selected for membership by a Faculty Council, which is made up of five faculty members.

Scholarship

A student who is consistently on the Lisbon Central School High Honor Roll.

Leadership

A student who has demonstrated leadership in promoting school activities, upholds school ideals, exercises a positive influence on peers, has a positive attitude, inspires a positive attitude in others and is dependable.

Character

A student who takes criticism willingly, upholds principles of morality and ethics, complies with school regulations concerning property, halls, cafeteria, etc., observes rules and is truthful.

Citizenship

A student who understands the importance of civic involvement, has a high regard for freedom, justice, and a respect for the American form of government.

Service

A student who volunteers, is dependable and well-organized, works well with others and shows courtesy by assisting visitors, teachers, and students.

Dismissal

Members are expected to continue to demonstrate the qualities of:

Scholarship
Leadership
Character
Citizenship
Service

Students not continuing to meet standards will be warned orally, then in writing before being dismissed. However, in the event of a flagrant violation of school or civic law, a warning is not necessary.

A student who is dismissed or who resigns may never again be a National Junior Honor Society Member.
